EUROPEAN LOUNGE

Hello patrons, supporters, customers, and people who have no idea why they are receiving this email,

It's Fringe time again! This is what Accent has going on for the best 11 days of the year in Edmonton :

- As always we are very lucky to be working with some of our great friends and associates and offering our support for their excellent plays. Check out "Gone" with Sarah Van Tassel and the hands-down funniest man in the Fringe year after year, Cody Porter. Also, make sure to see "Pieces" and "No Choking Matter" featuring our great friend and most consistent music night attendee, Lindsey Walker.
- The Fringe is always so good to us, this year we want to give an extra something back. "What could that be?" you ask, and I tell you. On the last day of the Fringe, Sunday the 21st, Accent is having an after-Fringe party. Everyone is going to eat and drink at staff prices, and celebrate the end of the festival. Join us for the party anytime after 8pm.
- Alright, now it's time for the biggest news of all. For the past week, we have been working on our very own Manhattan Project in the back room. We are excited to be finishing up the installation of a giant new beer cooler, complete with 8 brand-spanking new draft lines. We look forward to offering 8 of the most original and delicious draft beers in the city. Starting this Friday, we will be serving Litovel, Warsteiner Dunkel, Yellowhead Lager, Alley Kat Aprikat, and four others yet to be determined!
- Don't think our awesome line-up of live music is on hold just because it's the Fringe. This Thursday the 11th we have Washboard and the Beautiful and Kelly Nall at 9:30, and then next Thursday the 18th we're featuring 100 Mile House and Sean Burns.

Well that's all for now, I can't wait to see you down at Accent over the next 11 days!
