EUROPEAN LOUNGE

Hello Accent Customers,

I hope everyone had a happy and restful Thanksgiving long weekend. We at Accent have a bunch of new things on the go that I'm excited to share with you.

- Accent Artists of the week on Thursday. Every Thursday starting in October we will feature one or two local folk, jazz and blues artists. Shows run from 9:30 to 11:30, pints of Alley Kat are $4 and Martinis are $5.50.
- New expanded wine, beer and whiskey lists. Come check out our new menus which will be launching next week and featuring over a dozen new items. And the best day to try the new wines is of course half price wine Tuesday!
- Christmas Parties. If you are interested in booking Accent for a corporate or family function this holiday season, please let us know. We are happy to cater an event to any budget and group size. Contact clayton@accentlounge.com for more information or to make a booking.
- Accent Gift Certificates can be purchased online at our website, www.accentlounge.com or in store. They make a great Christmas gift for lovers of good food and drink!
- Finally, congratulations to our long-time server and friend Haley who had a baby boy, Oliver Alexander, on October 4th!

Take care, and see you soon!

-Garrett Boyko
